Detailed Report:

An online Workshop on Attitude Development (E-WAD 2021) was organised by Entrepreneurship Cell of Shrimati Binzani Mahila Mahavidyalaya and S.B.M.M. Alumni Association in collaboration with Jog Hospitality Pvt. Ltd. during 10th – 12th of June 2021. With the objective of nurturing life skills among students, the institution has been organising this Workshop since last 10 yrs. It is not only a popular workshop among students but also one of the distinctive features of the college.

The global pandemic hit the country last year and therefore the college organised it in the novel E-mode for the first time. The stalemate created by the pandemic continued to loom large and hence with the experience of successful online organisation at college level, the college came up with Online WAD as a collaborative venture on inter-collegiate level. In the context of overall downfall in the economy, crisis in job market and challenges for start-up initiatives, the theme of 'Encouraging Entrepreneurship' was finalized.

The call for the registration of E-WAD 2021 was given in the beginning of the month of June. The workshop was free and registration was open to all those who are interested to step in the world of Entrepreneurship. A promo video and a brochure were prepared and widely circulated. The workshop got overwhelming response with 112 as final number of total registrations.

During the three days of the workshop, every day a link of the video on a specific module along with a link of feedback form was posted on the E-WAD 2021 whats app group. The segments on Introduction to Entrepreneurship, SWOT Analysis, Goal Setting, Self-motivation and Communication Skills were well explicated by the Convenor and the resource person of the workshop Shri. Amar Damle. A module on Mental Resilience was ably handled by Dr. Amruta Bhuskute. Online Live interviews with Shri. Narendra Jog, Founder and Director of JOG Hospitality Pvt. Ltd. and Mrs. Suvarna Kayande, Director, Suvarna Events, both the First-Generation Successful Entrepreneurs of the city, was a special feature of this workshop. These interviews were coordinated by Dr. Charuta Joshi, faculty and Coordinator of the workshop. These live interviews gave a golden opportunity to the participants to have first-hand knowledge about the possible challenges in the field of entrepreneurship and tips to overcome them. The participants were overwhelmed by the efforts of the institution for giving them this opportunity and expressed their gratitude in their feedback.

The workshop concluded with a small valedictory function on the last day after which 55 participants who successfully completed the workshop were awarded E-Certificates of participation. The participants, in their live feedback also expressed their contentment and thanked the organisers for infusing new enthusiasm and not letting their spirits droop in the uncertain situations posed by the pandemic. Mrs. Deepashri Patil, officiating Principal and Dr. Suchita Marathe, Vice-Principal encouraged with necessary tips from time to time for successful organisation of the workshop. Shri. Amar Damle, Convenor and Dr. Charuta Joshi, Coordinator took pains for the success of the workshop. Dr. Amruta Bhuskute, IQAC Coordinator and ICT Cell In-charge provided the technical support.

A Report

The two-day International e Conference on Emerging Trends in English Literature and Language' was jointly organized by Hislop College, Nagpur; J M Patel College, Bhandara and Smt Binzani Mahila Mahavidyalaya, Nagpur on 4 th and 5 th October 2021. The e-conference was inaugurated at the hands of Dr Urmila Dabir, Chairperson, Board of Studies in English, Rashtrasant Tukadoji Maharaj Nagpur University.

Earlier, the Principals of the collaborating colleges extended their greetings to the delegates. Linking the creative expression of Bhutanese writings to the oral tradition and emergence of folk genre since 1990s, the keynote speaker, Dr S Chitra, Head, PG Department of English, Yonphula Centenary College, Royal University of Bhutan, brought alive Bhutan's culture, spirituality, history and popular beliefs through her address. Dr Laxman Gnawall, Professor and Head, CE Department of Language K Education, Kathmandu University, Nepal, in the first plenary lecture of the day, elaborated on how writers, in the course of history, responded to the plight brought by the contagion. He also delved into how our people shared their experiences on the social media platform during the pandemic. The session was chaired by Dr Sunil Kumar Navin, Principal, Nabira Mahavidyalaya Katol. In the second plenary session, Dr Kamala Naiker, Head, Eng Department of Language, Literature and Communication, School of Humanities and Arts University of Fiji elucidated how VS Naipaul's texts are discussed to expose the issues faced by the Indo-Trinidadian society in the Caribbean. The session was chaired by Dr Priya Wanjari, Principal of Santaji Mahavidyalaya.

Underlining that the virus has not just attacked our corporeal entity but also the western cognitive empire, Dr Dinesh Kumar, Associate Professor, Vaze Institute, Mumbai, made the delegates revisit the inter-disciplinary field of Health Humanities, which has gained momentum in the wake of the pandemic. He went on to point out that the field of Humanities can help us not only understand environmental injustice, devastation and the resulting pandemic destruction, but also be a means of healing and reorienting. Dr Mustajeb Khan, Professor, Department of English, Dr Babasaheb Ambedkar University, was the resource person for the session. Dr Ruta Dharmadhikari chaired the second plenary session.

Dr Khan said that there was an urgent need to re-read drama and help people once again have a participative experience of theater. The chief guest of the valedictory function was Dr Akhilesh Peshwe, Principal, Dharampeth M P Deo Memorial Science College.

Dr Karthik Panicker, Head, Department of English, J. M Patel introduced the concept of the conference and Dr Suchita Marathe, Head, Department of English, proposed a vote of thanks at the inaugural function. Dr Veena Joseph, Head, Department of English, Hislop College, proposed a vote of thanks in the valedictory session. Dr Lovely Menachery, Dr Umesh Bansod, Dr Supantha Bhattacharyya, Dr Rajshri Gajghate, Shirin Badar introduced the guests. Dr Archana Gupta conducted the paper presentation session while Dr Malati Panga and Dr Pooja Swamy conducted the proceedings. Dr Prantik Banerjee, Ajay Deokate, Bhojraj Shirirame and Abhirami George contributed to the success of the conference.
